

BICENTENNIAL TIMES (ARBA)
September 1976

STAT

Dr. Michael DeBackey, internationally-known heart surgeon, returned his autograph in a sterile plastic envelope. CIA Director George Bush's came all the way from Peking when he was U.S. Liaison Officer to China. Their names along with a dozen other famous Texans have been quilted into a Bicentennial quilt made by Filomena Hill of Houston, Texas (shown in photo). Her mother, Dallas Hill, designed the red, white and blue calico patch quilt. But it was Filomena who stitched in the names of Lady Bird Johnson, Walter Cronkite, Congresswoman Barbara Jordan, Mickey Mantle and many more. And quilting artist Grace Simpson found time to do the "Bluebonnet" state flower square.